

Player of the Year: Chance Kalaugher, Kaiser

Coach of the Year: Branden Kawazoe, Kaiser

Every team that played Kaiser knew that they needed to slow down Chance Kalaugher if they wanted a chance to win. The junior forward was the motor behind the Cougars' state title run and was selected as by the ScoringLive staff as the All-Hawaii Division II Boys Basketball Player of the Year.

Kalaugher was a First Team selection the previous year. He is joined on this year's First Team with teammate, Keoua Mahiko, Pahoia guard Tolby Saito, Hawaii Baptist guard BJ Hosaka and Damien center Kapiina King.

The 6-foot-5 Kalaugher led Kaiser to a 24-8 overall record, including a 7-4 mark in the Oahu Interscholastic Association Eastern Division. He also was the only junior selected to the First Team of the league all-stars.

"He's the leader of the team," said Kailua coach Wally Marciel. "He's a beast in the post. When we played Kaiser our goal was to try to keep him off the blocks and get him in foul trouble. He had that much of an impact."

Kalaugher averaged 16.6 points, 14.6 rebounds and 2.3 blocks per game and eclipsed the 20-point mark nine times this season.

"Chance is an animal," said Damien coach Alvin Stephenson. "You just look at him and he's a physical specimen that makes you pay attention to him a lot. When we faced Kaiser, I had the hardest time trying to come up with a defensive scheme because you can't really stop him."

The biggest area of his game that Kalaugher improved on was his maturity on the court. By being more disciplined on defense, the junior forward was able to remain on the floor in critical situations.

"He had to think how to stay eligible in the game," Marciel said. "Before he would try to block every single shot and get into foul trouble and get frustrated. The past two years he would get ticked off on every foul, but this year he would just shake his head and move on."

"He was a different player this year that's for sure. He was a little more patient, not forcing as much. I think that's what made him so successful this season."
